

For Immediate Release
Contact: Marlene Adrian 702.341.9807

The Judy Bayley Story is now on video

Never-before seen interviews

Local filmmaker, Women of Diversity Productions, Inc. will premiere a new video on gaming pioneer Judy Bayley, December 4. Judy Bayley was the owner of The Hacienda from 1954-1971. She gave generously to charities and was the originator of the famous Trail Ride for the Heart Association and the first contributor to the Performing Arts Complex at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The Judy Bayley Theater is one testament of her contributions to the Las Vegas 1960's legacy.

The December 4th event will include modeling of the lavish gowns and furs worn by Ms. Bayley, screening of Judy Bayley: First Lady of Gambling & First Lady of Charity and an auction to raise funds for future projects by Women of Diversity. The event will be held at 6:00 p.m. at the Elks Lodge at 4100 West Charleston in Las Vegas.

A buffet dinner will be served for a donation of $35. Women of Diversity, Inc. is a on-profit 501©(3) organization providing multimedia training program for at-risk youth and women. More than 35 young adults have trained in video production, editing, writing and Women of Diversity as produced six broadcast video documentaries on pioneering women and artists.

Reservations can be made by telephone 702.341.9807, fax 702.341.9828 or e-mail dvrsty@aol.com

The mission of Women of Diversity Productions is to provide a better quality of life through education, visibility and empowerment. The production of video documentaries of women is paramount to this mission. Sarah Winnemucca, Brenda Burnside, Nevada Women Artists, as well as portrayals of Las Vegas women of the past century. More information and actual video clips appear on the website:
<http://www.womenofdiversity.org/>

Submitted by : Kim Russell 702.806.5565

#